A newer addition has been added on the rear which distracts from its looks. It has a nice stairway which at one time had a niche containing a madonna statue, as Dr.McClevey was Irish Catholic. This area has now been bricked in, but it is noticeable on the west facade. It has double front doors. It has two marble firplaces.

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

Dr. McClevey, a vetenarian, was an early occupant of this house. He was a Canadian. Katie Gott served meals at this this house for many years and it operated as a boarding house (1920's--1950's). G. E. Hoover owned the house for awhile.

44. DESCRIPTION OF ENVIRONMENT AND OUTBUILDINGS

A garage is to the North of the house. At one time a fountain was in the West front yard. A windmill was located to the North around 1915.

A recent addition to rear of house has been the most recent addition. One interior rear stairways have been removed. Originally it has a white picket fence. It, also, had shutters. Tower & weather vane are unique. The weathervane is Saracenic, tin or zinc and has a cresent and star. It has a double bay on west. Window area on the West front is painted to duplicate the front door. Porch on the SW corner upstairs is enclosed.

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE Started out as a one story house in the 1880's and expanded to the present height in 1893. It was the J. W. Suddath home and later (1918) went into the Cook family and then became thru marriage the Alex Greer home. It is mentioned in Cena Christopher Draper Story (Papa Sez).

44. DESCRIPTION OF ENVIRONMENT AND OUTBUILDINGS Garage built in 1920's. A gazebo is located to the west of the house and east made at an early Warrensburg foundry.

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE
One of the first stained shingle houses in Wbg. This style house has quite a few representatives in Warrensburg. The barn in the back was also used as a tourist lodge in the 1920's and was known as Brown Betty Lodge. It was later used for parties and plays. Mrs. Smizer was a major Warrensburg historian.

44. DESCRIPTION OF ENVIRONMENT AND OUTBUILDINGS
The barn was also built in 1908. The house is on the corner of Holden St. and business route 50.

It was remodeled in 1967. It has a beutiful golden oak stairway, which was redone at the same time. The upper porch is now enclosed. It has a comical "porte cochère" on the South side. It has a double bay on the North and part of the porch on the Northwest has been enclosed.

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE
It was built around 1905 by Mr. B. R. Collins. This is a pleasing design of house. It has smooth flowing lines and has been well-maintaned.

44. DESCRIPTION OF ENVIRONMENT AND OUTBUILDINGS
This house is situated on a large lot with a Warrensburg Sandstone wall and steps. A large barn was located East of the house, but it has been removed. A garage is to the Southeast.

This style house with different modifications was very popular in Warrensburg. This is a good example of the lower half using Warrensburg Sandstone and the upper half using stucco being separated by a belt course. These houses have a wide cornice and roof dormers. These are fine examples of rustication. A small single window bay is on the South.

This is an excellent example of a Prairie School style house and shows the Frank Lloyd Wright influence. It was designed to fit into the midwestern landscape, but, evidently didn't catch on in Wbg. as it is the only one on this style in the town.

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE
One of the earliest stucco houses in Warrensburg. Built by "Judge" Graham. Mattingly's purchased the house in approximately 1940 and remained as such until August, 1983. Ernest Mattingly was one of the Mattingly Bros. that established the dime-store chain of that name in Missouri. It has now become Matco in most locations.

Formerly a two story home. The top was removed in approximately 1950 by Ralph Luvin. Mr. Luvin also added a basement and an addition on the NW corner. Mr. Julias Petersen purchased the home in 1947 and was in charge of the remodeling. The attic floor is tongue and groove white pine. It originally had a graceful winding stairway to the second story. It originally had two rooms on the lower floor with two above. These were

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

This is the oldest house in Warrensburg and regretably it has had the upper story removed. The land was purchased in 1842 and the house was built in 1847. The brick was brought from Lexington by wagon. It has walnut window frames and doors. It has the original wood mantles with shelves to the side. Due to southern sympathies Mr. Anderson left town soon after the start of the Civil War and the house was occupied by both Confederate and Union Troops. It later became the Wm. Moody home another prominent Warrensburg family. The grand daughters of William Harrison Anderson still

42. FURTHER DESCRIPTION OF IMPORTANT FEATURES

This house has eight marble fireplaces but they are for decorative purposes. The porch was added in 1917 by a Mr. Vollmer, who designed as well as built it. The house was remodeled in the 1950s and 1960s; remodeling included removal of gingerbread trim. A large porch extends across the front. The front door has stained glass side lights. Paired brackets are at each upper story window. Brackets also are at

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

This house was constructed by the Pickel brothers. The Pickel family came to the United States from Cottonheim, Prussia, where they were in the stone quarry business. They pursued this business in the U.S. and owned oarge quarries near St. Louis. Jacob, Anton and Peter established the business here in about 1870 and the house was built soon after this. Jacob died in 1903 and his sons, Ben and Frank, took over the quarries. The house was occupied by Ben, his mother and his sister, Clara. The house and the surrounding area has preservation potential. Additional information may be available from John Bruch, Rural Route #4, and Frank and Carl Theiss, Rural Route #4. Mrs. William Kurtz lived in the house from 1913 to

43. HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE
This house was a Col. Roberts house (veteran of the Civil War) according to Ralph Luvin. It is the second oldest house in Warrensburg that is still standing. It originally had a veranda and an outside stairway. It originally was a simple 3 room design. It has 2 very plain mantle fireplaces which are no longer used.

44. DESCRIPTION OF ENVIRONMENT AND OUTBUILDINGS
It is located in the "old town hill" section of Warrensburg. According to Mr. Luvin a stone for mounting a horse was near the house.
