KCRO		2014-07-22	Rick Hurshman	Butler	Bates	Burning	SN
Concern No.	19588	Concern Info	They have had a burn site on their residential property for several years now; however, it continues to get worse. This past week, they have burned every night. It wouldn't be so bad if it was once in a while, but they are constantly burning something. Many times it doesn't smell like they're only burning brush. You can't go outside at night and enjoy fresh air. You can't even open up your house. The odor is disgusting. I haven't noticed this year, but in the past there has been a tree trimming company dumping brush at this burn site. This can't be healthy for anyone living in any direction from this site.

When they are not being emptied, unknown items are being burned by an unknown person or persons. They have been burning off and on the past two (2) weeks. This happens a couple times per year. It is the worst for her when the wind is from the East. It was smoldering earlier today before the rain, but when asked where the burning was taking place she was unable to give a location. She is concerned about the smell, and what items they are burning. She is especially concerned for the sake of a new family moving in next door with their nine (9) children. She says the city has been notified, but nothing ever happens.

Concern No.	19522	Concern Info	I drove by at lunch today and grain that was up on the elevated concrete pad has mostly been scooped to the ground level, but still remains on site. Several members of the City Staff and neighbors saw an older gentleman hand scooping the grain from the upper level to the lower level for the past several days. It would appear as if the plan was to place the grain on the ground level in order to use a mechanical lift to scoop into a trail or truck bed. However, no grain has apparently left the site. The odor and flies are still horrific and unabated. I was able to smell the rotting grain before I reached the Food Pantry facility on the east side of the site and after I left the site on Water Street well past the public park to the west of the site.

Concern No.	19686	Concern Info	date-observed: 08-05-2014 comments: There is a farmer whose property is within the city limits of Vandalia. This property is half a block from my residence and several other residences. The field that I am speaking about is at the end of Carr Lane in Vandalia. My concern, along with the concerns of neighbors, is the very strong, foul, pungent odor from the substance he is spreading on his field. During the last few weeks, he has spread some type of manure several times. The odor is so strong, that you can't hardly be outdoors. While mowing tonight, I am having to wear a mask to cover my nose and mouth. Breathing is almost impossible due to the stench. I do not know who owns the property, although I was told the last name is possibly Erlich. I would like to know if something can be done about this, since it is occurring in a residential area full of people of all ages and health problems? I would be glad to provide any information you may need. Thank you. Audrain Assessor's website shows owner as: WILDHORSE ENTERPRISES LTD 3630 GEYER RD. ST. LOUIS, MO 63127

Comments	On July 23, 2014, Investigator stopped by the house of concern and spoke with the owner about precautions to take when working with asbestos containing materials. A roll-off dumpster was on the property filled with debris. A plywood box (see picture) was being used to put the transite siding in and then disposed of at the Cuba landfill. Investigator discussed using wet methods while removing any further siding and gave PUB02156, "Management of Nonfriable Asbestos-containing Materials," and PUB02077, "Asbestos: What is it and why is it a concern." On July 24, 2014, Investigator called Mrs. Thomas, the concerned party (CP) about the concern. Mrs. Thomas and her husband were very upset that there isn't anything more that the department can do about these projects. Investigator informed the Thomas's that there is a residential exemption and that the department can only give our recommendations on how to properly remove and dispose of the asbestos containing materials. Mr. Thomas stated that he would be calling the Feds about the situation. No further investigation required on this concern by this investigator at this time.

Concern No.	19721	Concern Info	Caller is concerned that debris is blowing around from a demolition project in progress. Caller is concerned about her children's safety if they go outside. Caller states that she does not know if there is asbestos present or not.
Comments On August 8, 2014, Investigator was performing a routine asbestos inspection at the time of this concern at the site. The contractor was properly removing and adequately wetting the material to be disposed of. No debris was observed being blown around the property. The town also received over an inch of rain the night before and was wetting the material during loading as this was a wet demolition project. The dump trucks were lined with two layers of 6 mil poly, "pig socks" were used to settle water runoff on the property and the truck tires were sprayed as leaving the property. All good work practices were being used and no compliance issues were observed. Investigator has tried calling the concerned party several times since the concern was received and gets a busy signal every time. Concern No.	19754	Concern Info	There are two duplexes at the corner of Rolla Street and Highway 72 in Rolla that are under demolition. One building is on the ground, the other still standing.
Comments On August 14, 2014, Investigator drove by this site and spoke with Mr. Larry Martin, part owner of the property. He stated that only the one duplex building was prepared for demolition. The other duplex is in decent shape and they have no plans to tear it down. A building demolition permit was acquired from the city of Rolla for the demolition (see attachment) and they also had a couple asbestos inspections and was informed that there were no asbestos containing materials in the building. The building falls under the residential exemption, therefore they were informed that the project was not regulated and they could proceed with demolition. Concern No.	19771	Concern Info	Someone is burning toxic material. The smoke is choking them. They burn several times a week.
Comments	The parties on site state that a fire that was set in a burn barrel on the evening of August 11, 2014, had gotten away from them and had set a brush pile, that also contained several tires, on fire. The Big River Fire Protection District had arrived at the scene and stated that the accidental brush pile fire be allowed to burn itself out. The brush pile fire was still smoking upon my arrival on the afternoon of August 12, 2014. Mr. Ellison Abney and Mr. Loyd Brown were on site at the time of my investigation. I discussed the regulatory requirements for open burning with them and left a couple of copies of the fact sheet entitled: "Facts on Open Burning Under Missouri Regulations." While homeowners at residences of four dwelling units or less are allowed to burn some household trash, there is a prohibition against the open burning of tires. The son of Mr. Ellison Abney, Mr. Mark Abney, who is ill, is the property owner.

The creek is not on my property but belongs to my neighbors, the Nantz's. Also, on the south side of my house, on my property, are 3 sewer lids that the city can access the sewer line. In the past, I've been told these were the source of the problem and were 'sealed' to prevent the smell. Since I moved here in 2002 there has been an odor caused from sewer gas. Mr. Childers stated the city thought it could be the mobile home park across the street from my house. But they cannot find the source of the smell. Since this problem has existed for years, and I've spoken to 3 other City employees regarding this problem since I moved in, I asked Mr. Childers if the City had ever asked for help from DNR. Mr. Childers said yes and that DNR was unable to find the problem. Is there anyway you can get me the information on the investigation of this sewer smell problem? In the 12 years I've been living here, and I know the problem existed prior to me moving in, the city still doesn't know what is causing the smell and I'd like to know exactly what can be done to fix this. She was preparing to contact the property owner and inform her of what is lawful. The original complainant was mostly concerned that because the trailer had been used as a Meth lab the trailer materials being removed and/or burned were releasing Meth residues into the air. Deputy Post understood the true concern would be with human health if the trailer was reoccupied. NFAN.
