Harry S. Truman, thirty-second President of the United States, was born in this house on May 8, 1884. Truman's father, John A. Truman, purchased the house from the builder, Simon Blethroad, in 1882. The family lived in the house until Truman was eleven months old. In 1890, the Truman family settled permanently in Independence, Missouri.

In 1927, Truman was elected to the Jackson County Court as Presiding Judge. In 1935 he was elected to the United States Senate and in 1945 he became Vice-President of the United States. That same year he assumed the Presidency following the death of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Truman was subsequently elected President in 1948.

During the Truman Administration (1945-1953) World War II was brought to a close; the Truman Doctrine and Marshall Plan spearheaded the fight against Communistic aggression; and the Fair Deal continued the domestic policies of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Truman is also noted for his efforts in formulating the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

House stands as a tribute to Missouri's only native-born who has to date become President of the United States.
