Any Other Comments or Observations:

Four massive brick piers break up an otherwise plain front.

H. H. McNair, an important mining investor, operated his mining machinery business at this site. In 1935, he puts down his large store building (which is the Sunrise Hotel) and built the current store on the north part of the property. The building is the second part of the Sunrise building and part of the parking lot is the same alignment that was under the McNair building (now at the time of the building).

Also, the old mine is still there.

An architectural firm did this to this building (see photos!)

Any Other Comments or Observations:
1917 is the first listing time for German Motor Co., a Packard dealership. However, it was probably already there before 1900. It is not on 1906 map so would be somewhere between 1900-1910.

Drew Cadillac there in 1950s.

Any Other Comments or Observations:

This one is a wild guess. Numbers in the area are not consistent. First regular listing of this address was in 1919 when Corner Motel was listed here. Likely the building was built in 1918. It's not until 1920 that there is an address for a bar and a large building with a small addition. No visible remains. The addition was added to the north side and arches on the main floor are at least as large as those on the north side. So my guess - 1/4 section built about 1920, then 1/4 section built about 1921. But I would swear it in court. LS.

Any Other Comments or Observations:

Every effort was made to verify the building built of old fieldstone and hewn timber built at location of Joplin in 1857.

Walls built at 50 from 1891-1920.
508 - was yard from 1823.
512 - was a railroad through in 1820.

This is an interesting site because there was a building at this location. It seems to be a brewery or distillery.
