These cottages are located on a bench or flat, right here in town; about one-half block from the Carr Spring of purest water; also deep well water piped to center of camp, with shower bath. They are about four blocks from the river, where there is good boating, bathing and fishing.

You can park your cars on the lawn right by the side of your bungalow, and get in your car and drive to the river, where there is one of the nicest Bathing Beaches in the country; or walk, if you choose, as it is only about four blocks to where the whole town goes bathing each day.

The view from the cottages is fine. They have large screened sleeping porches. Everything furnished except towels and tea towels. Kitchen and dining room furnished complete. Near enough to restaurants and hotels to take meals, if you wish.

LARGE, SHADY, WELL KEPT LAWN, AND THE BEDS AND COTTAGES ARE KEPT PERFECTLY CLEAN.

Electric lights in all the cottages. Make your reservations as far in advance as possible, accompanied by $5.00 per week.

If you wish a short float of the beautiful James, you can have your boat hauled up the river, and after the day's float land back at camp; or you can float down the river and haul back to Galena.

Bathing in James River at Galena

The name above shows a house of love,
A dear little bungalow,
With windows wide, light and cool inside,
And just room enough for two.

A kitchenette, fitted out you bet,
With just the things you need:

A dining room for the bride and groom,
That will make you smile, indeed.

A matchless view from a porch that's new,
With soft and downy beds,
Just the place to sleep, is the "Honeymoon,"
For the old and newly-weds.

Cottage 16x20, $10.00 per week for two; furnished with one large bed.

Dear old Mike

"Joe Boy" is a dream,
Thought out one day,
While the builders camp was near,
And when it was finished,
Within and without,
It was almost too good to be true.

Three bed rooms,
Light and cool and clean,
A kitchen and dining room too;
A porch that is
Big and broad and long,
With a most magnificent view.

A living room
With a nice fire place,
Just the thing when you're feeling
If you get "Joe Boy"
I'll bet, by Joe!
You will always be glad to come.

Cottage 30x25, $16.00 per week for four. This cottage is furnished with three beds, and will accommodate a party of eight for an additional charge for more than four.

42. Further Description of Important Features

This building is the 2nd half of the street block building, although the facade has arched windows now blocked in and a modest variation in the 2nd story cornice.

43. History and Significance

The quality of structure and current uses suggest a long life for the most prominent corner of the square. Hunt family operated Buchan's general mercantile here during 1930s. Buchan also had store in Gamseville and Good Spring. Abstract C. Located here c. 1908.

Bank to hold treasures of Rep. Dewey Short’s life

By Mike Penprase
The News-Leader

GALENA — When Robert Wylie and his brother John are done, the old Bank of Galena will be more than just a throwback to old-time banking.

Closed in 1937 near the end of the Depression, the brick bank building across the street from the Stone County Courthouse still has its original tellers’ cages made of oak and ironwork. Ornate pressed tinwork covers the high ceilings.

Because former Rep. Dewey J. Short once owned it and stored thousands of books and other items in it, the bank also will be a reminder of Short’s diverse life, Robert Wylie said.

Short’s political career spanned the late 1920s to the mid-1950s. He died in 1979 at the age of 81 and is little more than a historical footnote to most Ozarkers not around during the height of his career.

Wylie, a 40-year-old lawyer who said he became enthralled with Short’s oratory at a church reunion at Hurley several years ago, said he intends to put matters right.

Doing that will involve opening a museum of Short memorabilia and writing Short’s biography.

Wylie will write the biography, and his brother will take care of restoring the bank, which Short bought in 1939.

Working through a mountain of personal correspondence, congressional records, other government documents and hundreds of newspapers to get information on Short’s life probably will be a twoto-three-year task, Wylie said. His office in Crane also is filled with Short-related items.

Another two or three years will be needed just to get the biography to the period when Short became a thorn in the side of the New Deal, Wylie said.

Wylie became acquainted with Short in his later years.

Short, a congressman from 1929-30 and from 1935-56 and assistant secretary of the Army from 1957-1961, merits such treatment not only because he was a politician, Wylie said.

Short pursued several careers before his political fortunes rose after a 1926 Lincoln Day speech.

A Galena native who graduated from the old Marionville College, Baker University and Boston College School of Theology and who studied at Heidelberg and Berlin as well as Oxford and Harvard, Short was a “cosmopolitan Ozarker,” Wylie said.

At various times, Short taught philosophy at a Winfield, Kan., college and preached at Grace Methodist Church in Springfield.

He also earned money as a self-styled “traveler, orator, philosopher.” Pulling a poster bearing

McCord Family History

(Compiled by Helen McCord McCoy)

EDITOR'S NOTE: The McCord Family History is being published for its historical value to Stone County and not merely as a family history. The genealogy may not be of interest to many readers, but many of the incidents are of historical value to Stone County.

REMINISCING

WESTONE COUNTY McCORDS
A VANISHED CLAN
(Historical Sketch)
By Helen (McCord) McCoy

It was in 1868 that our grandfather, Dr. Thomas J. McCord, a native of Clarksville (Johnson County), Arkansas, came to Stone County, Missouri, and began medical practice where he was destined to leave permanent “Footprints in the Sands of Time.”

According to the Missouri State Historical Records, his father, William McCord, a native of Illinois, came to this section of Missouri in 1836. His uncle (brother of William McCord) had entered land upon which Neosho now stands. The city of Neosho was established in 1839, and has long had a McCord Street.

Charlotte Ring McCord, wife of William McCord and mother of Thomas J. McCord and seven other children, died in 1894, having long survived her husband who died in 1856. She was originally from Illinois and then from Arkansas. Three of their children later lived, died, and are buried in Stone County, Missouri. Frank M. is buried at Oak Grove Cemetery near Crane, Joseph W. in the vicinity of Hurley and Oto, and Thomas J. at Galena.

During the Civil War, Grandfather (Dr. T. J. McCord) served as a member of the Union Forces which defended territory surrounding Springfield. He was conscripted by the Confederate Army when 16 years of age. He ran away and walked to Springfield, Missouri, where he joined the colors from the North (Federal Army) and served with distinction.

Dr. T. J. McCord entered into the drug business in Galena in 1873. “Opposite the Southeast corner of the Square, was the house of Dr. McCord, a small but very neat pine frame building.” Fisk Family History, Spring 1872.

After a short while and the birth of their first child, Dr. McCord and family moved from Galena to Verona, Missouri, to have access to the Frisco Railroad. From there Dr. McCord frequently attended medical meetings and classes in St. Louis. He was later Coroner of Lawrence County, and said to be “Always ahead of his time with progress.” While living there, their first two children died and are buried with marked graves in the Verona Cemetery. They were Edward F. McCord, age two, died December 18, 1874, and Mattie A. McCord, age ten months, died October 25, 1875.

By late 1875, Dr. T. J. McCord and an older brother, Francis M. (“Frank”) McCord, had acquired considerable land located in an area between what is now Crane, Hurley, Missouri, and approximately nine miles southeast of Marionville. This included the historical homesite known then as McCullah Settlement.

“In 1852, John Wesley McCullah and wife, Melcina Short-McCullah moved to Stone County and bought a small but very neat pine frame building.” Fisk Family History, Spring 1872.

The following was taken from the U.S. Census of 1880 in Stone County, Missouri. The name, age and place of birth are listed as follows: Neel Carter, 46, North...

Francis M. Carr was born in Henry County, Tennessee, in 1827. Along with two brothers, Silas and William Addison Carr, he came to Missouri as a young man and laid off one of the early additions to Galena. This land included the now historic "Carr Spring" and, later, location of the first Galena boarding house which they built and maintained for several years. This was later known as "Old Carr House" and part of it served as the first home for our parents, Fred and Lillie McCord. We three older children (Allen, Helen, and Lois) were born there.

Martha Ann Baker-Carr was born in Knoxville, Tennessee, April 29, 1832, and had migrated with her parents, the Bowling Baker family, to Stone County, Missouri, in the year of 1843. This couple (four great-grandparents), was married in Galena, Missouri, October 23, 1851, and to this union was born 13 children, ten of whom died in infancy. The three who lived to rear families and spend most of their time in Stone County were Nancy Armina Carr-McCord who had eight children (listed elsewhere); John C. "Little Britch") Carr who had seven children - Orie, Efton, Lillie, Sallie, Frank, Elsie, and Melton; Delia Carr-Craig with two children - Cleo and Ethel. The children listed here are now all deceased except Frank Carr who lives at Clever, Missouri.

The Carrs donated land for the present Christian Church building and Francis M. Carr was buried there in the churchyard near his home after his death in 1894. His remains were moved to the new Galena Cemetery at the time of Martha's death on April 21, 1916. He had also donated four acres of land for the first school in Galena.

It was here at McCullah's Store that General Nathaniel Lyon called a "Council of War" while his troops wereencamped nearby, just before the Battle of Wilson Creek on August 10, 1861.

This was now our grandparents home. It was from a cellar at this settlement that Grandmother (Nancy Armina Carr-McCord) with a colored hired girl and two small children, Fred and Charley, watched the now historic Marshfield cyclone cloud cross McCord valley. That was April 18, 1880 - over 107 years ago. My father, Fred McCord, only four years old at the time, always remembered that experience, and would tell of how frightened the women were. The country was sparsely populated. A few families, bringing with them their darkies and customs of the deep south, had already settled in the valleys where wood and water was plentiful.

Grandfather (Dr. T. J. McCord) and his older brother Frank, having been reared in the south, soon employed a large negro family-the McCord Farm from Arkansas and lived in a tenant house near the northwest line and in sight of the present house. Two of the girls, Caroline and Adeline, always worked and lived in the home with the McCord family. I have heard many stories of how Fred and Charley would tease and scare these girls with Tic-Tac's, etc., when their parents were away. There was a close attachment between the two families, however. I can recall Grandmother contacting one of the Carter men in Springfield around 1920, and fondly inquiring of all by name. This fellow ran an elevator in a hardware store near the Public Square. Uncle Charley McCord, then a hardware salesman, had first recognized him. This Neel Carter family is listed in Stone County Census, 1880, and some are buried in unmarked graves in nearby Oak Hill Cemetery.

The three older children first attended the old Black Jack country school. Fred and Charley were later in boarding school at Marionville. Fred refused to continue, but Charley was later graduated from the old Marionville College or academy.

CAUSE FOR CONCERN

The use of smokeless tobacco, including snuff and chewing tobacco, is increasing at an alarming rate in this country, especially among young people. The American Cancer Society recommends regular oral exams by your physician or dentist. Cancer and other oral conditions related to the use of smokeless tobacco can be severely disfiguring.

GALENA MISSOURI
500 inhabitants
"The Resort of the Ozarks"

These cottages are located on a bench or flat, right here in town; about one-half block from the Carr Spring of purest water; also deep well water piped to center of camp, with shower bath. They are about four blocks from the River, where there is good boating, bathing and fishing.

You can park your cars on the lawn right by the side of your bungalow, and can get in your car and drive to the river, where there is one of the nicest Bathing Beaches in the country; or walk, if you choose, as it is only about four blocks to where the whole town goes bathing each day.

The view from the cottages is fine. They have large screened sleeping porches. Everything furnished except towels and tea towels. Kitchen and dining room furnished complete. Near enough to restaurants and hotels to take meals, if you wish.

Large, shady, well kept lawn, and the beds and cottages are kept perfectly clean.

Electric lights in all the cottages.

Make your reservations as far in advance as possible, accompanied by $5.00 per week.

If you wish a short float on the beautiful James, you can have your boat hauled up the river, and after the day's float land back at camp; or you can float down the river and haul back to Galena.

"Honeymoon"

Bathing in James River at Galena

The name above shows a house of love,
A dear little bungalow,
With windows wide, light and cool inside,
And just room enough for two.

A kitchenette, fitted out you bet,
With just the things you need;
A dining room for the bride and groom,
That will make you smile, indeed.

A matchless view from a porch that's new,
With soft and downy beds.
Just the place to spoon, is the "Honeymoon",
For the old and newly-weds.

Cottage 16x20, $10.00 per week for two; furnished with one large bed.

Joe Boy

"Joe Boy" is a dream,
Thought out one day,
While the builders camp was new;
And when it was finished,
Within and without,
It was almost too good to be true.

Three bedrooms,
Light and cool and clean,
A kitchen and dining room too;
A porch that is big and broad and long,
With a most magnificent view.

A living room
With a nice fire place,
Just the thing when you're feeling bum.

If you get "Joe Boy"
I'll bet, by Joe!
You will always be glad to come.

Cottage 30x25, $15.00 per week for a party of four. This cottage is furnished with three large beds, and will accommodate a party of eight. An additional charge for more than four.

We allkum

"We allkum" early, or we'll come late,
We are always welcome at any time
The aristocrat cottage surrounded by trees;
Here the beds upstairs catch every breeze.
You'll sleep till noon, with naught to molest
The screens and trees shut out every sound.
A porch beneath its clinging vines
Is fitted for dances or other good times.
Front is the town, the river and bluff.
A back native woods, and a spring, sure enough.
You may smoke your pipe, while the moon rides high.
And let the rest of the world go by.

You can park your "Jug" beside the street,
And jump from the porch to either seat.
If you want rest from this world of woe,
"Bonny Ethel's" the very place to go.

The home of John B. Williams, in Cape Fair, served as meeting place for Stone County's first County Court. In January 1852 court was ordered to meet at Jamestown, the county seat. Jamestown's name was changed to Galena in January 1853.

Money for construction of the first courthouse came from the sale of lots. The court appropriated $376 and appointed Samuel D. Nelson, superintendent. John H. Moore submitted the low bid and won the contract for building the two-story, hand-hewn structure, which the court accepted in February 1853.

The upper story was neither finished nor partitioned. Court officials kept their records and equipment in special corners.

Workers painted the building in 1854 and repaired the underpinning and the chimney in 1858. By 1867 the courthouse was in such poor condition that the county clerk's office moved to the home of P. C. Berry, a few yards from the courthouse.

On December 12, 1870, the court appropriated $4,000 for construction of a new courthouse (Fig. 1). Harry Baker served as first superintendent. He was succeeded by W. P. Davenport. Contractors were Goodall and Bradshaw. Apparently, an additional appropriation of $986 was required to complete construction on the hip-roofed, two-story frame. It may have had a cupola. Exterior stairs led from each side to the center door upstairs. The court accepted the courthouse May 4, 1874.

By 1919 the building was in such a deplorable state of repair that only three offices remained; the other offices were scattered throughout Galena. After more than 50 years of use, the courthouse was razed when Stone County authorized construction of a 20th century courthouse.

Petitions presented to the Stone County Court called for an election on a $50,000 bond issue, which passed in July 1919. Illustrations of recently built neighboring courthouses were printed next to the old courthouse of Stone County to point out the contrast.

Commissioners chose Charles Sudhoelter and Co., Joplin, as architects. Contractor was the Pauley Construction Co., Springfield, which bid $47,600 on the three-story, 65-by-70-foot, 40-foot-tall, brick building with concrete trim (Fig. 2). A central hall divides the interior; courtrooms, located on the south, have a curved projection with seven windows. The graceful, oval shape of the third floor Circuit Court room distinguishes this modest courthouse. Cornerstone ceremonies for Stone County’s present courthouse took place on March 27, 1920.

"Honeymoon"

Bathing in James River at Galena

The name above shows a house of love,
A dear little bungalow,
With windows wide, light and cool inside,
And just room enough for two.
A kitchenette, fitted out you bet,
With just the things you need;
A dining room for the bride and groom,
That will make you smile, indeed.
A matchless view from a porch that's new,
With soft and downy beds,
Just the place to spoon, is the "Honeymoon,"
For the old and newly-weds.

Cottage 15x20, $15.00 per week for a party of four; this cottage is furnished with three large beds, and will accommodate a party of eight. Additional charge for more than four.

"Joe Boy"

"Joe Boy" is a dream,
Thought out one day,
While the builders camp was new;
And when it was finished,
Within and without.

It was almost too good to be true.
Three bed rooms,
Light and cool and clean.
A kitchen and dining room too;
A porch that is
Big and broad and long,
With a most magnificent view.
A living room
With a nice fire place,
Just the thing when you're feeling bum.

If you get "Joe Boy"
I'll bet, by Joe!
You will always be glad to come.

Cottage 30x25, $18.00 per week for a party of four. This cottage is furnished with three large beds, and will accommodate a party of eight. Additional charge for more than four.
Weallkum early, or we'll come late,
Here's always welcome at any date
The aristocrat cottage surrounded by trees;
Where you sleep till noon, with naught to molest.
The screens and trees shut out every post.
A porch beneath with its clinging vines,
Fitted for dinners or other good times.
Front is the town, the river and bluff,
Back native woods, and a spring, sure enough!
You smoke your pipe, while the moon rides high.
And feel that the south wind's kiss.
It is a place that is wide and deep;
If you want to hear the bird's early call,
You wake from refreshing sleep;
If you want to hide from the sun's fierce rays,
Shade a wide spreading tree,
And feel that the sea has been good to you.
"Merry Girl" - the place you should be.
We'll issue - frowns will turn into smiles,
Careless - mist on the sea,
And before you know it, be singing a song.
And be as merry as merrily can be.

Cottage 20x20, $16.00 per week for party of four; additional charge for more than four.
Additional sleeping porches, 10x25, with two large beds.

Old traditions preserved

Historic lodge reopened

The historic Limberlost Lodge, located on the James River near Galena, has been opened under new management.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pope and family, new operators of the lodge, have vowed to preserve its historic traditions, and look on the 100-year-old Lodge as a peaceful place where visitors can find a refuge from the hectic pace of everyday life.

"We're trying to leave the lodge just as it was years ago," said Joan Pope. "People need a place where they can get away from it all to a quiet environment."

The Popes moved from Limberlost from Lois Hadley, who with her husband Shorty, owned the lodge.

"When we moved to Crane eight years ago, we had five kids and raised colliers--and we desperately needed a place to rent," Lois said. "We used to take the boys to Limberlost just to show them around, and fell in love with it."

"When Lois and Shorty decided they could no longer take care of the lodge, she called us and asked if we were interested in it," Mrs. Pope continued. "She told us that she wouldn't sell it to anyone unless she knew they would love it as much as she did. So here we are. I can't believe our good fortune."

The Popes now lease the Lodge from the Hadley estate, they hope to buy it soon.

"A huge white frame structure, the lodge includes living space for the family downstairs, a cafe, and eight sleeping rooms in the old attic. Three cabins, also for rent, are located along the wooded hillside behind the lodge."

"The rooms upstairs are sleeping rooms only, and tenants share the single bath. Mrs. Pope explained. "Seven of the eight rooms are furnished in antiques, including a four-poster bed and a brass bed. She has promised to remedy the situation in the remaining room, and looks at auctions and antique shops to find furniture in keeping with the period of the lodge."

"Otherwise, we're going to leave the upstairs the way it is, with the wallpaper and antique light fixtures," she says.

Though they resemble log cabins, the three cabins behind the lodge are actually made from roughly-hewn boards. They have no bathrooms or running water, the guests carry their water from the wellhouse and use the outdoor privy. "They're rented nearly every weekend, through," said Mrs. Pope.

Joan Pope is always on the lookout for tales about the lodge, and several oldtimers from the area have obliged her with some, including one murder.

"One man told me of an elderly salesman who stayed at Limberlost," said Joan. "The eldjer he sold was potent stuff and he told the other men staying at the lodge that he didn't want anyone getting into his cases where it was. He said if anyone did, he'd shoot him. When he came back from fishing, one man was drunk form the eldjer he had taken, and from the silt. The salesman shot the man, and he fell down the stairs dead, into what is now our living room."

There is also a secret cellar in the lodge. It was once used to hide bootleg whiskey, and there was a still out back. Mrs. Pope said.

"Many local residents enjoyed the lodge years ago, and now that it's reopened, they are returning," she said.

"Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Elsey are going to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary here this month," she noted. "They sparked here, Mrs. Elsey tells me."

New features of the lodge are a cafe, campground, and float trips.

The restaurant serves the evening meal family style. "I cook for my customers like I cook for my family," said Mrs. Pope, "and with five children, it's not much different." The cafe is open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

An old wood cookstove stands in the corner of the cafe. Joan admits that her first experience with the stove resulted in biscuits black on the outside and doughy in the middle.

"I finally read 'Foxfire II' to learn how to do it," she said.

Limberlost Campground, located near the lodge, has an area for tents and trailers.

"The Popes expect to start float trips on the James soon, with John boats and canoes for rent, and river and lake guides available.

Recreation around the lodge appears to be geared toward the family. "We have an area for horseshoes and volleyball, and of course fishing and swimming in the river," said Mrs. Pope. "We also have singalongs every Friday and Saturday night."

"Most people just come to relax," she said. "We have great guests. Limberlost is a quiet place. It attracts quiet people."

Assistance in the cafe and around the lodge is provided by Jackie Gilbert. The Pope children, Skip 17, Kenny 10, Kathy 8, and Karen 7, also pitch in to help. Bill Pope is a truck driver.

Joan is from New Jersey and her husband Bill from Mansfield, Mo. "New Jersey is a fact of life," she says with a grimace. "Missouri is home. I like it here better than anywhere."
The Kimberlost Lodge, a landmark in Galena for over 100 years, has been re-opened under new management. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pope operate the lodge, which features sleeping rooms and cabins. The Popes intend to preserve the historic traditions of the Lodge while offering several new services, including a cafe, campground, and float trips.

These two trunk highways cross at Galena and it is just one half mile north of Galena on Highway 43 to Limberlost Club House on the banks of James River. Drive your car right to the door of the Inn, turn it over to a caretaker, and forget it until you wish to use it again. You can also reach Galena by way of the White River Division of the Missouri Pacific railroad. If you come by rail, a wire will have the Club car waiting at the depot to bring you to the Club House.
SWIMMING

It will please your sense of "Rightness" when you unload on a hot summer day, to find Limberlost Inn completely surrounded by beautiful big shade trees and "The Ole Swimmin' Hole" less than fifty yards from the door, and as you look above the swimming hole and observe that long stretch of beautiful, smooth, shady river, you are both proud and glad that YOU are numbered among the members of The Limberlost Club, and that this is YOUR stretch of bass-filled water to play and fish in to your heart's content. All of the members of your family from the smallest to the most expert swimmer can enjoy "The Ole Swimmin' Hole" at Limberlost, because nature has made a perfect job of it and where the water is less than a foot deep at the south end of the pool, it follows a very gradual slope 200 yards north to the deepest part of it. So get the family together and "Come on in. the water is always fine."

BOATING AND FISHING

All boats for local fishing and boat rides are FREE to members and you will find plenty of good fishing within easy reach. If you wish to take the famous float trips of one day or more, the Galena Boating Company will have boats and guides here at the Inn for your convenience at all times at prices that are very reasonable, and if you will advise the Club management by letter or wire in advance of your coming, it will be a pleasure to have your outfit all ready to hit the river. The float trip from the Club House to Branson on Lake Taneycomo is about 125 miles by way of the James and White rivers and only 21 miles returning by rail by way of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

FREE CAMP GROUND

For those who prefer to bring their own camp equipment, there is a beautiful camp ground overlooking the Club grounds and the river that is FREE to all members. The camp ground will be equipped with electric lights and running water.

CLIMATE

Just remember that The Limberlost Club is located far enough south so that nine months of the year are OUTDOOR months, but not far enough south to be bothered by malaria and about all that we know about the pestiferous mosquito is what we have been told. Join Limberlost Club and come once, after that, no other place will fill the bill. Smile if you will, but try it and be convinced.

ACCOMMODATIONS

As soon as the weather permits, the Club Inn will be thoroughly renovated and redecorated inside and out, and the same treatment will be given all cottages, and when you are ready to pay YOUR Club a visit it is up to you as to whether you stay at the Inn or have a cottage. You will find both up to the minute, clean, sanitary places to live in and enjoy your respite from the daily grind, amid the beautiful surroundings and invigorating air of the Ozarks. Whether you have a cottage or stay at the Inn, you will find a locker in the locker room for YOU, so bring your guns and tackle the first trip and lock them up until you come again.

MEALS

The chief aim of the management of this Club is the elimination of “formalities” and to do away with all unnecessary ceremony. Therefore, all meals except breakfast are served “family style” and are made up of strictly fresh, well cooked foods that are bound to please any healthy person who spends a good share of their time in the open. However, if any member is a bit under the weather and requires special attention as to his or her food, it will be our pleasure to give that attention upon being made aware of the fact. Any fish caught by a member will be cooked and served without charge other than the regular meal rate. If there is any dish that you would like, tell us about it and if we know how, will be glad to serve it. Remember, this is YOUR CLUB—make yourself at home.

SURROUNDINGS

Limberlost and Galena are situated in the beautiful James River valley amid picturesque hills, criss crossed by a network of good roads, where the hunter, fisherman, hiker or the artist will find that which delights them most. It is only an eighteen mile drive over a finished highway to that quaint, homely spot so aptly described by Harold Bell Wright in “The Shepherd of the Hills.” Here you will see Uncle Ike’s postoffice at The Forks, the cabin where lived Old Matt and Young Matt, Sammy’s Lookout, Mutton Hollow, the home of the Shepherd of the Hills, and on your way back, a trip through “Fairy Cave” will convince you that this is, indeed, a wonderful old world after all, and that Limberlost is located in the most wonderful part of it.

A HOME-LIKE PLACE TO REST AND ROMP

When you start for “The Limberlost Club” leave your evening clothes and that “latest” suit at home—you don’t need them, for Limberlost Club is that “different” kind of a club that you have been wishing for, where you could get into those old fishing togs and not feel out of place if you came into the club-house or the dining room “as is.” Candidly, “fussy” people are out of place.

NOTICE—Only sane minded people admitted to Membership, account great number of squirrels in surrounding woods.
at Limberlost. This is a Club for the “happy-go-lucky” clean living people who know how to enjoy the out-of-doors and its health giving sports. Help us make it the Keenest, Cleanest and most Home-like Club in the Ozarks.

MEMBERSHIP FEES AND RATES

Membership fee for first year, including ALL privileges $15.00
Membership fee for 2nd year, including ALL privileges $10.00
Membership fee for 3rd year and each succeeding year $ 5.00
Five year membership, if paid NOW $35.00

BOARD AND LODGING

Board and Lodging at the Inn, per day, per person $2.00
Board and lodging where the member and family live in cottage and eat at the Inn, per day, per person $2.00
Board and lodging for children under 12 years, per day $1.00

The above rates apply to Members, their families and invited guests only, and cover ALL privileges at the Club except the dancing pavilion for which a small charge will have to be made to cover cost of music and maintenance. The management of the Limberlost Club has made every effort to bring the rates down to a point where the cost of membership and living at the Club will not “HURT” and will try to keep them there.

J. M. FRANCIS, Prop. and Mgr.
The Limberlost Club
Galena, Missouri

AT LIMBERLOST CLUB, WHERE LIFE IS WORTH WHILE
Fish were a daily fare. The guides always knew where to catch them, and the fishermen were often inept. They would put out trot lines at night to catch catfish or “shone” enough bullfrogs for a frog-leg breakfast.

It was a wonderful era, one which can never return to the Ozarks, although it can linger on in pictures like this one and in the memory of old-timers who were lucky enough to be taken along on such journeys when they were children.
THEY NOW CALL THEM THE ROARING TWENTIES, but if they roared, it couldn't have been very loud, as these Oscar M. Carter photos of a Sunday swimming party on James River at Galena indicate.

These pictures, based upon the type of daring bathing suits worn by men and women, must have been taken shortly after World War I at the beginning of what the movies came to call the Jazz Age, usually portrayed by "flapper" (the 1920 term for which "slick-chick" is a 1970's equivalent) doing the Charleston.

The Charleston, of course, was a spectacular and difficult dance, and few ever really mastered its intricacies (ask grandmother and grandfather about it, and suggest a demonstration if they stretch the truth a bit.)

The professionally trained dancers who performed it in the movies could do the steps, of course, but most others who danced to the music of a wind-up Edison or the radio might, if they were good, do only the simple basic one.

The Charleston didn't last long — no longer than the "twist" which filled the screen of the sixties. It was a craze which died in a year or two, at most.

The bridge was a climax for linking local, regional and state tourist traffic to the historic Shephard of the Hills region. It was one of several local 1920s features that brought increasing attention to Galena as an Ozarks resort town of the early 20th century. See attached.

The bridge is located on a highway curve in which the west leg is the bridge. Currently a part of developing local park.

BIG CROWD SEES
BRIDGE OPENING

Unfavorable Weather Conditions Did not Hinder Great Throng from Gathering

A crowd estimated at about 3,000 attended the dedication ceremony of Stone county's new state highway bridge across James river at Galena last Sunday. The day was raw and cold, but in spite of it, all attended all points in Southwest Missouri, some from Kansas City, Jefferson City and St. Louis, forgot their discomforts and were so busy eating and viewing this wonderful structure they scarcely noticed the weather.

In the early morning the wind came from the southeast so the arrangements committee decided to build the speakers stand against the bluff on the east side of the bridge between the spans of the bridge. This bluff is about 300 feet high and besides being a wonderful windbreak served to throw the voices of the speakers out over the crowd.

The first thing on the program was a big basket dinner and according to Mr. Kerr of Crane the table reached from Rande Spring to Ponce de Leon. Anyway there was plenty to eat and if anyone failed to get his share it was his own fault—it was there for him.

At 1 o'clock the combined bands of Crane and Galena gave a concert lasting about thirty minutes which was enjoyed by all. The musicians in these bands were all Stone county residents except two, Attorney Tom Moore of Ozark and a young trombonist from the same town. Mr. Moore is an old resident of Galena and was sufficiently interested to lend his assistance.

Dr. H. L. Kerr of Crane acted as chairman and owing to the illness of O. P. Douglas who was to have been the first speaker on the program, introduced his son, Tom, prosecuting attorney of this county, who delivered the welcome address and gave a brief history of Stone county. Mr. Douglas was followed by T. H. Cutter, chief highway engineer, who gave a summary of the money expended in Stone county and also spoke of the future plans of the highway commission.

We do not have the space to go into detail concerning the addresses but suffice to say all the speakers were able men and their messages were enjoyed by all. We have never heard a series of addresses which were so inspiring and worthwhile. Superintendent Daniels of the Missouri Pacific railroad made a brief talk, also L. V. Stredsky, chief bridge engineer for the state highway department. Mr. Stewart, chairman of the state board of health, had a place on the program and here an exception speaker H. P. Mobberly, divisional highway engineer of Springfield, made a brief address and during his talk he stated that citizens of this county owed the early completion of this bridge to Mr. Conboy, who had the contract for building the road on 43 along the bluff. While he was building this road Mr. Conboy shot off about a four-ton rock which landed against the east brace of the old bridge bending and warping them and making the bridge unsafe for heavy traffic. Mr. Mobberly was called down to inspect the old bridge and he was of the opinion that the bridge was unsafe and began to make plans immediately for a new bridge, the one which is now complete.

Thanks to Mr. Conboy.

Rev. Dewey J. Short was the last speaker on the program and delivered the dedicatory address. Mr. Short is a powerful speaker and many said his address Sunday was the best they had ever heard. Mr. Short is a native of Stone county and is the son of Postmaster J. G. Short of Galena.

The celebration went off like clock work and the publicity thus given Stone county will be far reaching in its effects. Many people thought we had only a small bridge here across a small branch but when they saw its magnitude and realized what it means to construct a bridge such as this one, they were indeed surprised. Had the day been warm and fair, our little town would not have accommodated all who would have come.

DR. SHORT MAKES PLEA FOR MORE DEVELOPMENT

Says Southwest Missourians Fail to Appreciate Scenery
And Advantages of Ozarks Region

By Herb Stall Writer

CALHENA, Mo., Nov. 20—Railway and highway joined today in the celebration of the opening of the recently constructed state highway bridge over the James river. A crowd estimated at 3,000 attended the dedication ceremonies held at the bridge.

The bridge in said to be the only one in the state which has a "V.

The south end has one side leading over state highway No. 44 toward the Springfield Lake Taneycomo road, and the other leading south along state highway No. 43 through Bledsoe Spring and Blue Eye to the Arkansas line.

DR. KERR PRESIDES

Dr. H. L. Kerr of Crane, chairman of the committee which had arranged the celebration, presided. Stone county court, of which O. H. Stone county court of which O. D. Potter is presiding judge.

The formal dedication ceremonies followed a dinner served by the women of Calhena to which the guests of Galena and Stone county were welcomed to "eat their fill."

Following the dinner, the combined bands of Galena and Crane, directed by Ralph W. Sturtivant, gave a concert.

The bandstand, erected against a bluff on the south side of the river between the two forks of the bridge, served also as a speakers' stand. The crowd gathered in front of the stand and along the highway on ear-side, while the line of cars extended half a mile farther in each direction.

Tom M. Douglas, prosecuting attorney of Stone county, was the first speaker. Telling of the struggle Stone county has made to advance, he said that two of the principal aids have been the Missouri Pacific railroad and the state highway.

THANK OTHER COUNTIES

"Stone county can thank the rest of the counties of Missouri for this bridge," he said, "for all have helped materially in its erection. So it isn't merely a county bridge but a state bridge."

Mr. Douglas then referred to the change that has come about in travel during the past few years.

"The first county court met at Cape Girardeau in 1853 and designated the first two county roads," he said. "There were enough, in those days, when a trip to St. Louis required three weeks. But it has taken the modern highway to make it possible for us to drive there in a day."

T. H. Culver, chief engineer for the highway department, was the next speaker.

No. 2 CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

"While Stone county has no primary roads," he said, "the county is fourth from the top in the number of miles of secondary roads. There are 51 miles of roads in the county that have been designated as secondary roads."

"BEAUTIFUL BRIDGE"

L. J. Svedrup, bridge engineer for the state highway commission, was introduced by Doctor Kerr as the "dreamer who saw this bridge before the concrete was poured."

Speaking of the new bridge, he said that he had seen 2060 bridges in Missouri during the past nine years, and that he believed the Galena Bridge was the 18 most beautiful of all. But beauty was not the only point he stressed.

"The bridge about 100 yards downstream," he said, indicating the structure that has served for several years, "was all right when it was built in 1912. But it wouldn't meet the demands of modern traffic. This bridge we see dedicated here today is built to bear up under the traffic of 20-ton trucks. You don't see any of them crossing now, but the bridge was built to stand the traffic that will go over it a few years later.

Paul J. Neff, formerly an engineer with the Frisco railroad, now transportation superintendent for the Missouri Pacific, with headquarters in St. Louis, was the next speaker.

"You may think it unusual," he said, "for a railroad man to have a part in the dedication of a bridge like this. So many people think the highways and the railroads..."
LOVE TO TALK

The only reason I can think of for being selected to deliver the address on this occasion,” he said, "is that I love to talk. In fact, I love to talk more than anybody else in all the world—unless it is my sister, Beulah.”

After speaking of the beauties of the roads and bridges of older countries, he declared that the people of the Ozarks do not appreciate the wonderful scenery they have at home.

Lapping into the factory, he described the changes in transportation during the past few years.

“Our father came here in ox-carts,” he said, and those were all right until they began to get Springfield wagons. Then came the buggies, and it looked like everything was the best in the world until someone invented rubber tires. And things came the automobile.

“Well, I’m really sorry for the fellow who has to hear love made in a ditch. But isn’t it the same as when we used to wrap the line around the whip and let Oldham take his way? There was no trouble in knowing for detours then.”

Returning to the serious, Doctor Short declared that the building of highways not only tends to awaken a community conscience, but that it tends to material development as well.

People can become better acquainted, he said, if they can travel from one section to another, and will not think merely in terms of the neighborhood in which they reside.

“I spoke at Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., yesterday afternoon,” he said, “and last night I was in Kansas City. This afternoon I am speaking here, and tonight I shall be in Springfield. Tomorrow I shall be in Mount Vernon, and the next day I shall be in Wichita. This is possible only because of the development of our highways.”

Discussing the possibilities of Stone county, he declared the road, the fruit and the hen will determine the future of the county.

“The only trouble,” he said, “is that too many of us are just like the old hen—she wants to do anything but ‘set, set.’”

Doctor Short made a special plea for the development of tourist interest in Stone county.

“The tourist industry is one of the greatest we have,” he said, “but we would like to have this road to the east put in shape for a mile or so. Then we could reach Springfield in an hour and a half, even if we have to leave here through a ditch.”
Before it was closed to traffic on Monday, the uniquely constructed "Y" bridge near Galena merged Missouri highways 13, 248 and 176. The 59-year-old bridge will remain open for pedestrian traffic.

By Patricia Fennewald
The Daily News

GALENA — Just as Monday afternoon started slipping into Monday evening, John Johnson and Bruce Graves drove a '63 pickup truck to the edge of the old "Y" bridge spanning the James River.

For nearly half an hour, they waited there, at the intersection of Missouri 13, Missouri 248 and Missouri 176, as several cars cautiously snaked their way past them and crossed the 59-year-old bridge.

Then, at 4:40 p.m., the two slowly drove their truck across the bridge. Just as they finished the drive, highway workers placed temporary barricades at all three openings of the three-pegged landmark.

With that, Galena's Y bridge became history.

"We told them (highway department workers) that we would like to be the last vehicle to cross the bridge before it was officially closed to vehicles, and they went along with that," Johnson said Monday night. "So we were the last ones to cross it, and then they officially barricaded it."

Johnson and Graves, both teachers at Galena High School, said they discovered almost by accident that the Missouri State Highway Department planned to close the bridge Monday. It's been used only sparingly in the last month or so, after its replacement — a ruler-straight bridge costing $4.4 million — opened.

But Johnson and Graves said they felt the old structure — one of only two of its kind left in the nation — deserved its own moment in the spotlight.

"You know, there's been so much hoopla about opening the new bridge, but there's a lot of history in that old Y bridge," Johnson said. "I kind of hated to see it go without the fanfare of its own."

Johnson said their crossing was witnessed only by highway department workers, who will replace the structure's temporary barricades with permanent ones within the next few weeks.

The graceful bridge will remain open to pedestrians as a unique landmark born of the country's days as a river town. And it will live on in the memories of people like Johnson.

His family has owned a farm near the Horse Creek community for generations, and he remembers making the crossing as a very young boy.

"It (closing) wasn't sad, but it was a little nostalgic," Johnson said. "You see something that's been around for so many years, and then it kind of goes away, almost without anyone noticing."
When The Missouri-Pacific White River Was New

The Missouri-Pacific is this area's newest railroad, and it was brand new, or almost so, when Oscar M. Carter, now 94 but then an active photographer, took these pictures before World War I.

At right is an intricate wooden trestle built of native oak timber and put together in spiderwork fashion. It was in Stone county.

Below are scenes of the old coal-fired locomotive crossing the James river bridge in Galena and coming through a cut in Taney county.

Cutting timber for ties and bridge lumber was an important source of income for the Stone and Taney county residents when the railroad was built. Many logs floated down the James river, and before Table Rock, dam scars left from tree trucks which slid down bluffs to the water below were clearly visible.

Aurora business men bought land for the right-of-way completely across Lawrence county in an inducement to bring the route through town on Commercial street instead of through Marionville.
